Information on ownership and use

This/these vehicle(s) has/have been owned by me for at least one year before my returning to Sweden.
 No Yes

This/these vehicle(s) has/have during the ownership period prior to my return been used in a non-EU country by me or a member of my household⁸ to a normal extent.
 No Yes

Has there been any interruption in its use in the non-EU country?
 No Yes

If yes, specify the time periods that you used the vehicle(s) listed above in the EU before your return to Sweden.

Chassis number or equivalent	From - to date (DD/MM/YYYY)

If there has been any other interruptions in its use in a non-EU country (e.g., storage), specify the time periods here.

Chassis number or equivalent	From - to date (DD/MM/YYYY)

The vehicle(s) will be used in Sweden by me or a member of my household in the way it/they is/are intended during the first year after it was declared for release for free circulation.
 No Yes

This means that if you are granted relief from customs duty and tax for a vehicle, the vehicle must be put into service and used as a means of transport for the whole of the first year after it was declared for release for free circulation.

Within the three years before my return I have not declared a vehicle, caravan, boat or aircraft for release for free circulation and been granted relief from customs duty and tax.
 declared the following vehicle, caravan, boat or aircraft for release for free circulation and been granted relief from customs duty and tax.

Type of vehicle	Date	Customs Office/Customs Identification No (tull-id)

I am aware that if I transfer ownership of a motor vehicle, caravan, boat or aircraft for which I was granted duty and tax relief within less than one year after the customs declaration was lodged, I must report this to Swedish Customs and first pay customs duty and other taxes for it (Section 8 Ordinance (1994:1605) on exemption from customs duty etc.).

Supporting documents¹¹

When you claim duty and tax relief for items that are personal property and which each has a value of more than SEK 100,000 you need to submit documents to prove the information that you write in the declaration of personal belongings. This also applies when you claim duty and tax relief for a vehicle (whatever its value). The Customs Office may request supporting documents in other cases too, if it is considered justified.

The following supporting documents are attached

- Proof of return to Sweden
- Documents proving stay in a non-EU country due to work
- Documents proving ownership (applies only to vehicle or if the item has a value exceeding SEK 100,000)
- Documents proving use of the goods in a non-EU country (applies only to a vehicle or if the item has a value exceeding SEK 100,000)

Other information

- A separate attachment with additional information is attached (refer to the heading/section to which the supplementary information refers).

Signature¹²

I declare that the information I have submitted is correct and truthful

Date	Name in capitals

Incorrect or incomplete information may cause liability under the Act (2000:1225) on Penalties for Smuggling.

1 Arrived in Sweden

The day you came to Sweden to live here.

2 Non-EU country

Non-EU country refers to a country outside the customs territory of the EU.

3 Breaks for visits in the EU

When you calculate how long you have stayed in a non-EU country, you may include short breaks that you have made for visits in the EU. Breaks are considered to be short if they amount to a maximum of 72 days for each one-year period of stay in a non-EU country. If the time of one and the same break exceeds 72 days, you may not include any part of that break in the stay in the non-EU country.

4 Family

Family refers to husband, wife, registered partner, cohabitee, children or parents you live with.

5 Import restrictions

There are entry restrictions on certain goods. This means that you must have permission or that specific conditions must be met for you to import these goods. Medicines, animals, plants and certain fruits, food, weapons and ammunition are examples of goods with import restrictions.

6 List

The goods may be listed on a special form which is attached to the declaration. If you attach such a form, you must write your name and sign each sheet.

7 Household supplies

Household supplies refer to canned food, other foods, cleaning liquids and similar consumables in a household. Note that there may be special import restrictions on some of these goods.

8 Member of the household

Member of the household refers to a family member, cohabitee, employee or other person who shares a household with the owner.

9 Information on vehicles

Information that you provide regarding the purchase, delivery, registration and third-party insurance for a vehicle must relate to conditions before its import to Sweden.

10 Vehicle type

Vehicle type refers to car, motorcycle, caravan, boat etc.

11 Supporting documents

Details of your stay in a non-EU country can be substantiated by evidence of your emigration from Sweden; registration in a municipality (in a non-EU country) where you were a resident; work permit and/or resident permit; certificate from an employer; rental contract for an apartment; proof of migration to Sweden.

Information on ownership and use can be substantiated by purchase documents (invoice, receipt, hire purchase contract); foreign insurance documents; registration and third-party insurance documents in the case of a vehicle; shipping documents.

12 Signature

The copy of this declaration that you present to the Customs office must contain your original signature. Otherwise, your application for duty and tax relief will not be processed.

Information on the processing of personal data

Swedish Customs is responsible for the processing of personal data provided in this declaration. The data will be processed within Swedish Customs pursuant to the Act (2001:185) on the Processing of Data in Swedish Customs operations.

The purpose of the processing is to examine your application for relief from customs duty and tax on personal belongings.

The right to request information and correct, block or delete incorrect data

Under Section 26 of the Personal Data Act (1998:204) you have the right to request information on your personal data processed by Swedish Customs once per calendar year. If you wish to receive this information, you must send a written and signed request to us. In accordance with the Personal Data Act, the request must be made on paper and cannot be sent by e-mail.

Under Section 28 of the Personal Data Act, you also have the right to request the correction or deletion of personal data that are processed incorrectly.

If you have any questions about the processing of personal data and would like more information, you can contact:
