Information to sole traders

Everyone holding an authorisation from Swedish Customs is listed in our List of Customers. The list is published on our website, www.tullverket.se. The details on you, as a sole trader (i.e. your business is identified by your personal identity number), will not be published unless you give your consent.¹⁾

Personal data (name, address and personal identity number) that I provide in this application may be processed for publication on www.tullverket.se.

¹⁾ Further information on the processing of personal data can be found on our website, www.tullverket.se, Search for 'personal data'.

²⁾ According to Swedish regulations, an authorised signatory is the person/persons with the authority to make signatures on behalf of the company. It is usually the CEO or someone in the Board of Directors of the company or someone who has been delegated this authority. In case the signatory is not the CEO, the Swedish Customs need a signed power of attorney which confirms the delegated authority of the authorised signatory
